Charges Against Gardner Dropped for Lack of Evidence.

Hark of Evidence.

BaR. Palmer, of Merry Mount, N. C., who is said to have accepted $25 to forget that he had been robbed of a pocketbook containing $20 by a man who gave the police the name of J. E. Gardner, of New York, was not in the Police Court yesterday when the case was called, and the charge against Gardner was dismissed. Patrolman Bertucci, who is said to have witnessed the transaction after Palmer's pocket-book had been recovered, arrested Gardner on a charge of pocket-book had been recovered, arrested Gardner on a charge of vagrancy. He was held on this charge so that the other charge might be prosecuted, but Palmer's failure to appear when the case was called yesterday caused Justice Crutchfield to dismiss it.

Gny Apologises for Language Used
Over Telephone.

The case against P. H. Gay, a public accountant, with offices in the Ameri-can National Bank Building, arraigned in the Police Court on a charge of using insulting language to Mrs. L. R. Wortham over the telephone, was yesterday dismissed by Justice Crutch-field.

Gay and Mrs. Wortham both live in Highland Park, and are on the same party telephone line. It is said that the remarks made by Gay were made when Mrs. Wortham attempted to use the telephone while Gay had the wire. The case was dismissed when Mrs. Wortham explained to the court that Gay had written her a satisfactory apology, and that she had no further desire to press the matter.
